

PNEUMATIC POST

Prague has the last system of pneumatic post in the world. The first tube was constructed already in 1887. In the 1990s, close to 9 thousand shipments per month were transported in this way. Lucky that Raben delivers shipments straight to the door!

If beer rules in the Czech Republic, it is in coalition with CHEESE!

The plant on Loštice has been producing delicious Olomouc cheese, which can be fried, stuffed or roasted, since 1876. There is no better snack that goes so well with the fantastic Czech beer.

Health resort

North of Olomouc, there is a famous health resort called Lázně Jeseník. This is where the inventor of shower, Vincent Priessnitz, used to work. Now it is clear why Poles use the word 'prysznic' for shower :).

PENCILS AND CRAYONS

All fans of drawing know pens and crayons by Hardtmuth Koh-I-Noor, and the first pencil in the world was made in České Budějovice thanks to Joseph Hardtmuth, who patented the pencil core in 1802.

THE UNDERGROUND TRAIN

Prague has special trains with "dating carriages" which travel on the "A" line. The idea is to engage people in conversations and help them to make new friends and not to stare at their mobiles. Perhaps someone will find Mr. and Mrs. Right on the train?

We are also happy to talk especially about what we can transport for you!

Sugar cubes

The town of Dačice is said to be the place where sugar cubes were invented in a refinery which processes sugar cane and beets. In 1840 it was managed by Jakub Kryštof Rad. His wife, Juliana Radová, hurt her finger when crushing a sugarloaf. She complained to her husband and after several month he presented her with a box of sugar cubes of various colours...

Czech flag

It has three colours - white, red and blue. Each of them denotes something different: white stands for purity, red – for lots of blood spilled for the home country. Blue was added in 1919 as the original version of the flag looked exactly like the flag of Poland. This colour signifies the greatness and sovereignty of the Czech Republic.

White and red are also the colours of Raben!

Dršťková polévka

The cornerstone of each Czech dinner is soup. One of the most delicious soups in the capital is the aromatic tripe soup - Dršťková polévka. It is quite similar to Polish tripe soup, however the spices are different. The Czech version always has a lot of dried red paprika and caraway.
