May - the month of lovers

May, believed to be the month of lovers, has a special holiday in Slovakia called "putting up the maypoles". A "maypole" is a tree with its bark peeled off, most often fir or spruce, fully decorated with ribbons. Such a "maypole" is put up by a boy at night in front of the home of the girl he loves. The following Sunday, the young men visit the houses where maypoles are put up and collect donations for the upcoming festivities - "majáles".

BRYNDZOVE HALUSHKY

Anyone who travelled across Slovakia and missed bryndzove halushky is a loser! They are potato dumplings with sheep cheese (bryndza) and roasted bacon served with sweet and sour cream.
